

Costa Rica and its path for decarbonizing its economy

Learn more about the costa rican way:

- how to get the energy matrix of 99% renewable
- how to successfully make the economy sustainable
- how to save the environment and the biodiversity
- how to interconnect different environmental strategies
- how to develop all together into a national strategy

26.04.2023, 17:00 (Karlsruhe)

Zoom:

<https://h-ka-de.zoom.us/j/68746332034>

Program

26.04.2023, 17:00 (Karlsruhe), 9:00 (San José)

Zoom: <https://h-ka-de.zoom.us/j/68746332034>

	Time	Schedule	Speaker	Institution
	17:00, Karlsruhe 09:00, San José	Welcome Words	Prof. Dr. Angelika Altmann-Dieses	Karlsruhe University of Applied Sciences Vice Rector Teaching and International Affairs
			Selma Janssen	Sustainability and energy management
	17:20, Karlsruhe 09:20, San José	Nature Based Solutions (NBSs) – Science and Public Policy Making approaches for fighting climate change	Dr. Francisco Rilla	UNEP former programme advisor in the fields of: capacity building on bio-diversity and nature conservation, policy development, national and regional negotiations, management and implementation of projects
	17:40, Karlsruhe 09:40, San José	The benefits and costs of decarbonizing the energy sector in Costa Rica	Dr. Jairo Quirós Tortos	Professor of Power and Energy Systems Coordinator of the Electric Power and Energy Research Laboratory (EPERLab) Faculty of Electrical Engineering University of Costa Rica
	18:00, Karlsruhe 10:00, San José	Bio economy Strategy of the Republic of Costa Rica and its approach to the academia	Dr. Mercedes Montero Vega	Director Center for Research in Agricultural Economics and Agribusiness Development (CIEDA) University of Costa Rica
	18:20, Karlsruhe 10:20, San José	Essential Costa Rica, Costa Rica´s Country Brand and its sustainability approach	Ms. Laura Ureña Tenorio	Inter-institutional management Executive Marketing Communications and Country Brand (Essential Costa Rica) Department Costa Rica´s Foreign Trade Promotion Agency PROCOMER
	18:40, Karlsruhe 10:40, San José	Costa Rica´s decarbonization approaches	Mr. Ronny Rodríguez	Vice - Minister Ministry of Environment and Energy (MINAE)
	19:00, Karlsruhe 11:00, San José	Questions and Answers Closing Remarks		